After a short session on Tuesday, the court adjourned until Monday, August 11th.

City Council Proceedings.

At the council meeting Monday night bids were opened for the grading and paving of 2nd street. As only one bid was received, the city clerk was ordered to re-advertise for bids on this work.

A resolution was offered and read three times for the paving of West Main street between 5th and Highland Ave.

Charges against Night Watchman Rogers were filed and his trial set for the next regular meeting of the Council, Sept. 1st. Mr. Rogers is accused of assaulting Harvey Parker and Dick Mitchell; of disturbing the peace of C. E. Bass, and of drinking. All of these charges may or may not be true, but Mr. Rogers, we're willing to forgive you for these transgressions for the good you have done. Let every citizen in Lexington go to this trial, it may be to your future interest.

Death of Mrs. Henry Weibel.

Oscar McCorkendale Badly Injured.

Friday night about 9 o'clock when Mr. and Mrs. Deacon Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Mitchell of Mayview, were leaving Lexington in an automobile and were rounding the curve on High Town Hill, they found lying in the roadway a man and a bicycle. On investigating they found the man was seriously injured. They brought him to town and took him to the office of Dr. Payne, where he was attended by Dr. B. T. Payne and Dr. Roberts. They found his jaw bone broken in two places and his collar bone shattered. The injuries were such that they decided to hurry him to a hospital in Kansas City, where his injuries could be properly treated. He was taken in the Gratz's car accompanied by Dr. Payne. His identity was soon established when he was brought to town. Mr. McCorkendale's home is in Hardin.

No one seems to know how he was injured. The first the parties in the auto knew of his presence was when they ran over his bicycle, whether or not their car struck him, they were unable to say.

Our Annual Sale of Summer Footwear

FRIDAY, SATURDAY & MONDAY, AUG. 8, 9 & 11th

In announcing our annual sale of Summer Footwear for this year we wish to offer just a word of explanation as to why we are making so great a reduction on this seasons goods.

The facts are: First—The styles in Footwear change from season to season to such an extent that it would probably mean a greater loss to carry this year's styles over.

Second—We have made much heavier purchases for Fall and Winter than usual and will need the room.

Third—On account of an unusually heavy business this Spring and Summer we find the stock very much lower than previous years, therefore more broken and fewer pairs to sacrifice.

The prices quoted below must convince you that every pair are in the sale at less than wholesale cost.
